

Ready to Pick the Right 3PL Software?

With an abundance of 3PL software out there, it's crucial that you pick the best one to suit your business needs. To ensure you select the right one, equipped with all the necessary features and functionalities, we created a checklist for you to follow when making your decision:

Must-Have Features When Choosing 3PL Software	Yes / No
Integration
Supports key business ecosystems like your CRM and accounting system.
Integrates with clients' storefronts and marketplaces.
Onboarding Process
Allows configuration from other existing clients to be copied.
Able to sync data from clients' storefronts and marketplaces.
Has a solid knowledge base.
Scalability
Smart automation.
Advanced Billing and Reports
Automates put-away, storage, receiving, and shipping.
Supports unique billing items and multiple invoice formats.
Offers robust reporting capabilities.
Client Portal
Offers clients real-time data and full inventory visibility.
Configuration
Flexibility to add or modify different functionality and requirements.
Multi-Client Management
Ability to handle multiple clients within the same system.
Offers clients logins and dashboard access.
Clients get full transparency into their stocks.

Must-Have Features When Choosing 3PL Software	Yes / No
Specialized Attribute Tracking
FEFO.
Lot control.
Customer Support
Have a dedicated team to help with your needs.
Offers multiple support options like on-site training, phone support, and a ticket system.

It's time to unlock all these key features with VeraCore's smart fulfillment software. The solution comes equipped with features designed to streamline your warehouse operations and help you work smarter, faster, and more efficiently.

With just one platform, the software offers various functionalities to improve your warehouse operations, scale your business, and take your operations to the next level!